DECEMBER 4TH

President's Message

Hello Everybody,

Congratulations, we've made it to the last week of classes and finals are on the horizon. Hopefully you're not too overwhelmed. Best of luck to all of you. It's a quite time at the SESS as we also have finals that we are underprepared for, but here's what's going on this week:

SESS Caroling

On Saturday the 9th we will be doing some Christmas Caroling. If you want to come spread some holiday cheer, come out and relax a little through song and hot chocolate. Meet in the SESS lounge at 7pm and remember, the best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear.

Food Drive

Help make the holidays merry for everyone by supporting the College of Engineering's Holiday Food Drive! You can make donations at the Engineering Student Centre or SESS office to be entered for a chance to win one of several USASK Bookstore or SESS E-Store prize packs. 3 food items donations or $5 in cash give you 1 entry in the draw. Donations will be accepted until December 14th.

Christmas R&P

Check out the back page for info about our upcoming Christmas prank.

Finals Tutorials

Unfortunately, it's that time of year. Check out page three for tutorial dates.

Christmas Joke:

Q: Who is Santa's favorite singer?

A: Elf-is Presley

Ho ho ho! Feel like getting into the holiday spirit, and blowing off some stress during final exams? Come caroling with the SESS on December 9! The Christmas Tank will be packed with festive engineers, celebrating everything magical about the season, and the fact that none of us have exams the next day.

Hot chocolate and song books will be provided! Meet in the SESS Lounge at 7PM!

Make sure to dress warm and bring your friends- we hope to see you there!

-ChESS

This week the SESS is running a stunt,
Codename: Crappy Christmas.

The Stunt will take place on Tuesday December 5th. Throughout the day, there will be crafting supplies in the lounge to create some decorations for the prank. Come out and get creative before the stress of finals really sets in.
Meet in the lounge at 7pm for the main event: decorating the Ag Lounge!

Reminder: you must be an SESS member to take part in stunts, so bring your membership card as well as your student ID with you.
