President's Message

Who's ready for the second full week of classes? Me neither.

VP Administration By-Election

Registration for the VP Administration By-Election opens on Monday the 18th and will run until Monday the 25th at 4:30pm. For more information please talk to me sometime this week.

Deadline for registration changes

Tuesday the 19th is the deadline to add any classes to your schedule for the fall term, if you have any changes left to make to your schedule, do them ASAP.

Ag-Eng Olympics

Sign up your team for the Ag-Eng BXXR Olympics, at the Tartan on Monday the 25th. Come out and make your college proud! Sign up sheet is in the SESS Office. Tickets are $20 per person with 4 people per team.

Career Expo

The campus career expo is on Wednesday the 20th and it's a great opportunity to network and get some face time with companies. It will be taking place from 10am - 4pm in the PAC. Dress code is business casual.

Engineering Paintball

Eng paintball is this Saturday the 23rd at 11am. Tickets are on sale in the SESS office this week, $40 for members and $45 for non members. Details on Facebook.

Finally, everyone's favorite part of the Presidents Message, the terrible joke:

Dad: When my hand heals, will I be able to play the piano?

Doctor: Yes, you'll be fully healed in a few weeks

Dad: Great! I've always wanted to play the piano!

Call for Private Tutors

The SESS is looking for upper year students who are willing to provide private tutoring for students in the college. Private tutoring can make a huge difference in the academic success of individual students and is a great opportunity to earn additional income, create relations, and build your resume. The private tutor list is posted on the SESS website (sess.usask.ca) under the 'Services' tab, for students to access.

	8		7			2
				1		8	3	7
6	4	7	2

	6		5	2	1		9
					8	6
					7	3	5	2
5	7	3		6
		8			9		7

Additionally, the SESS holds tutorials in the first semester for:

- CHEM 114
- GE 111
- GE 124
- MATH 123
- MATH 223

If you are interested in being added or removed from the private tutor list, or are interested in hosting a tutorial, please contact Shanleigh, VP Student Affairs at vp.student-affairs@sess.usask.ca with your name, email, and a list of classes you would like to tutor for.

Engineers Without Borders

Join Engineers Without Borders for free pizza at our introductory session this week! Here are the details:

Date: Thursday, Sep. 21, 2017

Time: 6:00PM to 7:00PM

Location: ARTS 146 (just follow the scent of pizza!)

We will be going over what EWB does as a national organization, what we do as a local chapter, and how you can get involved in helping to solve global systemic poverty! We'll play some fun games and finish of the session with pizza!

Are you interested and aren't able to make it to the intro session? That's okay, we meet weekly every Thursday from 6:00PM to 7:00PM in AGRI 1E77. If you have any questions feel free to email EWB at ewbusaskpresidents@gmail.com. Hope to see you all there!
