President's Message

Hello everyone,

I hope everyone enjoyed their first week of classes & made it to (most of) their lectures. With the first week ending and the start of labs, most of our welcome back events are coming to a close, but we do have one more for you guys!

Kool-Aid Night

Kool-Aid night is Tuesday September 11th at 6:00pm in the SESS Lounge. It's an opportunity to meet upper years, have some free drinks (Kool-Aid to be exact) and hear about some traditions in the college. It's an informal event that is a great platform to meet new people & create some friendships.

Free Gift Basket Raffle

Thanks to one of our awesome sponsors, the SESS has 2 gift baskets to raffle off for our members! Buy your membership by Friday September 15th at 4:30pm and be automatically added to the draw! Winner's will receive an email VIA their PAWS account to claim their prize.

Now that's all from me for this week. I hope you're excited to be drinking from a firehose of knowledge right away. Take care & good luck!

Q: Why does Snoop Dogg carry an umbrella?

A: For DRIZZLE

Kind Regards;

Shanleigh McKeown
