PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone!

I hope you all enjoyed your well-deserved break; I know I enjoyed mine. But now it's time to put our nose to the grindstone and think about why we didn't bother getting a bit more ahead in our studies before taking off for a week. While you are all working hard, be sure to still enjoy yourselves and be social.

FIRE AND ICE DANCE. Hell Dance, the best party ever, is being brought back to life and rebranded as FIRE AND ICE (Fire = Hell = Engineering, Ice = Cold = Saskatchewan). Hell Dance was the biggest event on campus in past decades, bigger than Ag Bag Drag; bigger than Foam on the Range; bigger than the ego of the agros (not quite as big as the ego of the engineers, however). This special event is resurrected for our celebration of 100 Years of Society (the Engineering Students' Society was founded in 1919), and it's gonna be mindblowing. It's all going down on Friday, March 6th, and TICKETS ARE ON SALE NOW IN THE SESS OFFICE, $10 for members and $15 for non-members. Don't miss out on this event, or you'll regret it (cause it's gonna be hella lit).

TOGA STD. If you have a strange sensation to wrap yourself in a bedsheet and drink lots of liquid courage THIS FRIDAY, then Toga STD is the event for you. Because of 100 Years of Society, we are shaking things up a bit and getting a LIMOUSINE PICKUP for everyone. Same ticket prices as Fire and Ice Dance, also available in the SESS Office.

This week also sees another old event revived, MECH ELEC is on Friday, and is a fun pub crawl between the Electricals and the Mechanicals. Talk to IEEE or MESA for tickets. The SESS has election campaigning happening right now, so keep your eye out for posters and GET INFORMED.

SESS Executive Campaigning has just started! Check out their platforms at sess.usask.ca and come to the forum next Monday (March 2nd).

Come meet Elder Josphe TODAY in the SESS Lounge from 11:30 - 12:30 and enjoy some FREE COFFEE AND COOKIES.

That's all I got for you folks this week. I hope you have a great week :)

Ps. Don't forget to buy your tickets for Fire and Ice!

Cheers,
Dayne Gawley.
