PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone,

Another week has come and gone. There is some important information in this week's 'Fo so don't skip right to the sudoku this week!

First off, IEEE pizza sale is back! If you were like me, you took advantage of not having to pack a lunch plus who would give up the chance of having pizza. I also hear CHESS perogies are making a comeback this week so keep your wallets open for Thursday!

Another important update is USESF is opening applications this week! There is $50,000 of funding available for projects, initiatives, and events if it fits into the following criteria: Academic & Professional Development, Competitions, Events, Projects, or Tutoring. The application and further information regarding eligibility is on the SESS website: www.sess.usask.ca You can also stop by the SESS Office if you have any questions.

Cheerios,

Kasey B.
