IN THIS ISSUE

Happy Monday!

This week is absolutely packed with great events, so make sure to read the calendar and ad page carefully!

Visit the Cop-op Centre today and 'Warm Up Your Career' today by learning about the employers who will be at the pop-ups the rest of the week.

Need help with physics or just want a place to work with other students? PEPSS hosts study nights every Monday!

If you signed up for the SaskInvent Nuclear Hackathon, make sure to go to their Info Evening on Thursday.

Finally, have some well-earned fun at the EnvESS NYE 2.0 White Out Party on Friday!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hey all!

Woah, that was a chilly weekend! Hopefully, you've got your layers sorted and some hot chocolate handy to stay warm. We've got lots of exciting things coming up to keep your spirits high and your calendars full!

First off, thanks to all those who bought tickets to our Winter Formal Industry Mixer. We're so excited to see you all on Wednesday! For all amazing SESS members attending, there's a fun bonus. We will be awarding our Social E and Sport E Awards at the mixer, so fill out the SESS Awards application (QR code on page 3) for some extra prizes!

If you're on the hunt for a co-op term this May, keep an eye out for employer pop-ups in the Engineering hallway this week. This is a great chance to chat with companies, learn about opportunities, and maybe even score an interview.

And speaking of networking opportunities, tickets are still available for the C.J. Mackenzie Gala of Engineering Excellence on January 28th! It's an evening of networking, celebration, and inspiration for students and industry professionals. You can find the eventbrite link on page 3. Don't wait too long to grab your spot!

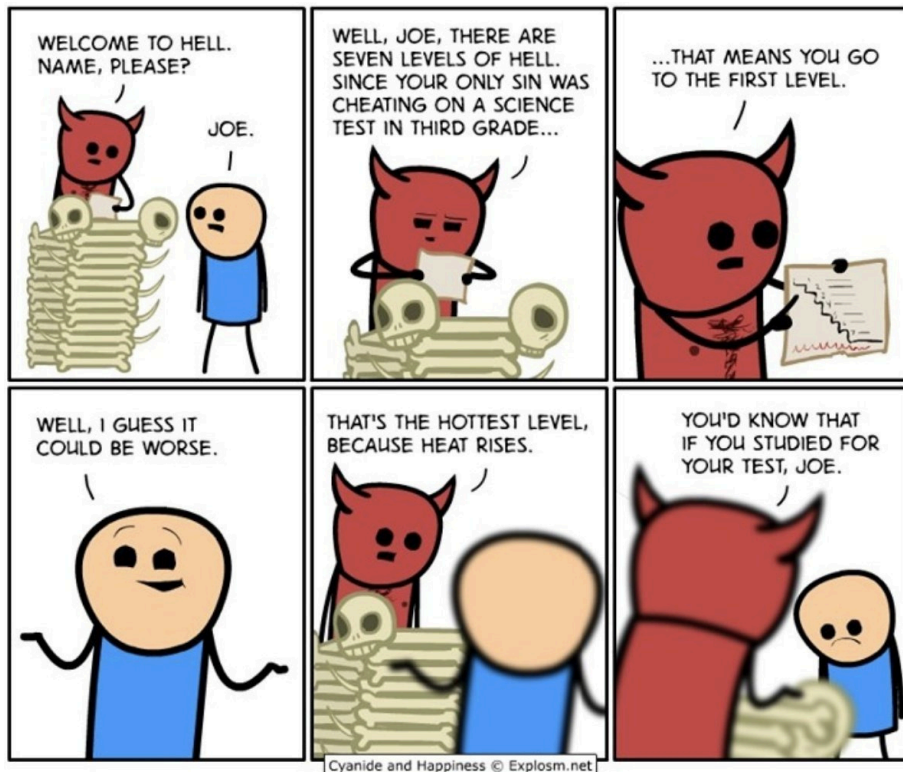

Stay Awesome,
Sarah K.
